

Abstract

A first epitaxial layer group to emit a yellow color light is provided on a substrate via a first buffer layer. Then, a second epitaxial layer group to emit a blue color light is provided on the first epitaxial layer group via a second buffer layer. The first and the second epitaxial layer group are made of II-VI semiconductor compounds, respectively.

200110147642